

Department of sociology

U G/ PG

Programmes Outcomes

- Sociology provides a better understanding about societies and theories, ideology and the nature of Indian society
- Student will get job opportunities in current and emerging field like social responsibility social welfare social work etc.
- Student will identify and apply sociological concept and theories to understand social phenomena
- Identify how social structures create and reproduce different form of social in equality, locally and globally
- Use sociological knowledge to inform public understanding and policy debates
- Explain the sociological perspective broadly define; use sociological theory to explain social problems and issues make theoretically-inform recommendations to address current social problem; and demonstrate the utility of the sociological perspective for their lives.

Course Outcomes

- Sociology seeks to understand all aspect human social behavior, including the behavior of individuals as well as the social dynamic of small groups, large organization, communities, institutions and entire societies.
- Sociologist are typically motivated both by the desire to better understand the principles of social life and by the conviction that understanding these principles may add in the formulation of enlightened and effective social policy
- Sociology provides an intellectual background for students considering carries in the professions or business
- Graduate/Post graduate student of sociology should able to develop-critical thinking sociological understanding written and oral communication, better understanding of real life, professional and carrier opportunities.