

Programme Outcomes

After 3 Years of Study in Geography Under Graduate Programme the programme will have the following outcomes for the students:

1. This course will provide students, the basic concepts of Physical & Human Geography.
2. It will help in developing analytical and critical thinking based on the themes and issues of Geography.
3. Students will be able to analyze the problems of present physical as well as cultural world and they will try to find out the possible measures to solve those problems.
4. Students will be able to understand applied and interdisciplinary aspects of Geography.
5. Students will be able to design and conduct research projects in geography.
6. Students will learn how to use various surveying instruments in the field.
7. Students will be equipped with various statistical techniques and their uses.
8. Students will learn how to prepare maps based on toposheets as well as GIS.
9. Students will be able to find out an original research question appropriate for geographic analysis.
10. Students will be able to design and implement legitimate geographic methodology.
11. As a student of Geography, they will be capable to develop their observation power through field experience and to identify the socio-environmental problems of the areas and regions.
12. Students will prepare themselves for professional careers in Geography.
13. As a spatial science subject will train students to employ in the sectors of geospatial analysis, regional planning and development, tourism, mapping and surveying etc.
14. Through this course students will be able to prepare themselves for Post Graduate and further Ph.D. programs in Geography.
15. Students will be able to relate and use geographical knowledge and its applied aspects in their practical life.